

The Magic of Rhythm
Michael Folker

Take a musical journey that reveals how rhythm creates magic in music. The stage comes alive with exotic instruments from around the world, delightful music and magical illusions. The program is a blend of live music, violin and percussion. Demonstrating how composers use rhythm to create illusions in music. Topics include time signature, tempo, syncopation and more. A question and answer session follows each performance.

folker@cod.edu