

Brassworks performs as a quintet offering child familiar classical, jazz, and popular compositions by a wide variety of famous composers. Its' program can be taylored to ages ranging from pre-school to college level. Each musician will present a brief instrument historical overview, as well as how to produce sound and a demonstration of their respective instruments. There is a question and answer session, as well as a special surprise student participant segment of the program.

The ensemble has extensive experience presenting age specific programs in a variety of educational settings. Its' performances has been featured at the Skokie Music Theater, Chicago Jazz Phiharmonic Jazz Academy, Music Alive, Loyola Academy, Niles North High School, Lake Forest High School , Niles West High School, and numerous middle and grade schools.
